Society Doings in and Around The National Capital

By SALLY VAWTER HARRIS.

The President will be assisted at the musical at the White House this afternoon by Miss Margaret Wilson, who returned from New York yesterday afternoon.
Mrs. Wilson, who had hoped to be able to greet her guests and keep other social engagements, upon the advice of her physician, will not be present this afternoon.

Mrs. Franklin K. Lane and her daughter, Miss Nancy Lane, have returned to Washington from a Virginia resort, where they went in search of health. They are both rapidly recovering.

Mrs. Lindley M. Garrison, who is in Philadelphia until Friday, has donated a handsome prize for the card party to be given at Raucher's Wednesday afternoon, June 3, at 3 o'clock, for the benefit of the Tuberculosis Hospital at Ponce, Porto Rico. Among those who will act as hostesses on that occasion are Mrs.
Franklin D. Roosevelt, Mrs. Franklin D.
Roosevelt, Mrs. Duncan U. Fletcher, Mrs.
James Hamilton Lewis, Mrs. William P.
Forland, Mrs. Horace M. Turner, Mrs.
Beverly Brockbridge, Mrs. June Kemp, Albert Norton Wood, Miss Elsie Davis, Mrs. Walter A. Bloodorn, Mrs. E. T.
Taylor, Mrs. George Young, Mrs. Brady C. Pike, Mrs. Henry Ford, Mrs. John Ford, Mrs. C. C. Walcott and Mrs. I. L.
Hunt.

The funds raised from the entertainment will be used in furnishing the hospital at Ponce, a number of women having generously donated handsome prizes.
Tickets are to be sold at $1.00, including refreshments.

The wedding party to attend Miss Roberta Ames and Edwin William H.
Purcell-Wood at their marriage at All Souls' Unitarian Church tonight, were entertained at supper last night at the Army and Navy Club, following the church rehearsal.

Mrs. John R. Williams entertained a luncheon party yesterday for her mother, Mrs. Hewitt, of St. Louis, who celebrated her eighty-first birthday. Mrs. Williams' sister, Mrs. Lucius Turner, is also visiting her. Early in June Col. and Mrs.
Williams will take possession of the country place of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Leiter, on the palisades of the Potomac in Virginia.
Miss Frances Williams, their younger daughter, is making a trip around the world with Mr. and Mrs. Leiter.

The American Minister to Denmark and Mrs. Egan have canceled all their social engagements, and the latter, his sister, on account of the serious illness of Dr. Egan.

Mrs. and Mrs. Jerome Bonaparte will reach the summer at Narragansett Pier, and have taken a cottage there. The two daughters of Mme. Bonaparte, the Misses Streiblich, will be there with them.

The former Secretary of the Treasury and Mrs. Franklin MacVeagh have gone to Chicago to spend some time with their son, Eugene MacVeagh, who occupies the old MacVeagh house of 100 rooms, in that city. They will remain there for several weeks and will then go to their summer place at Dublin, N. H.

The Surgeon General of the army has sent out cards for the closing exercises at the Army Medical School session of 1913-14, to be held at the school, 1721 Thirteenth street, on Monday afternoon.

Mrs. Champ Clark will make the only address of the day at the Martha Jefferson breakfast to be given by the League of Democratic Women at Raucher's Wednesday evening, June 3, at 7 o'clock. Mrs. Clark will have a table and entertain a number of guests.

Mrs. Frank Foster Greenwalt will be hostess at the D. A. B. table Lieut.
Colonel J. V. G. Gillis, commissioned from April 30, 1914.

Lieut. H. M. Cooley, detached Naval Academy, Annapolis; to leave of absence.

Assistant Surg. G. M. Faulkner, M. R. C., commissioned from May 1, 1914.

commissioned from May 5, 1914.
Assistant Surg. J. A. Omer, M. R. C., commissioned from May 6, 1914.

FRAT PLANS CELEBRATION.
Local Sigma Chi to Observe Semi-centennial June 10.

Epsilon, the George Washington University Chapter, and the Washington alumni chapter of the Sigma Chi Fraternity have issued invitations to all members of that fraternity to attend the semi-centennial of the foundation of the local chapter to be given on June 10 in honor of Dr. Robert L.
Farham, '44, one of the founders. Entertainment will be provided by a string quartet, and several good speakers have accepted invitations to address the meeting. Supper will be served in the large dining-room of the chapter house, 1432 M street northwest. The fraternity is the oldest Greek letter society at George Washington University, having been founded at Miami University, and the local chapter was installed in 1864. Gen.
Benjamin Platt Runkle, one of the seven founders of the order, has declined his intention of being present.

The committees appointed by President Marvin Thompson, of the alumni chapter, are as follows: Entertainment, William W. Brice, Parke A.
Galleher and Phillip Walker; reception, Phillip Walker, William Woodman, Frank Atherton Howard, Harrison B. McCawley and Harold Acker; active chapter, Carl A. Mapes, William H. Woodman, Irving Baum and Parke A. Galleher.

G. W. U. STUDENTS TO BANQUET.
For First Time in History All Classes Will Combine.

One hundred and fifty members of the graduating classes of Columbian College, Teachers' College, and Schools of Engineering, Medicine and Dentistry of George Washington University will attend a banquet at Raucher's Monday evening, June 8, the occasion being the first joint function of its kind ever given by the students of the institution.

Heretofore each class has held an individual banquet during commencement week, but through the efforts of the newly formed George Washington University, the seniors arranged for the joint affair this year. Rear Admiral Charles Stockton, president of the university, deans of the various departments, and other members of the faculty will be the guests of honor.

The committee appointed by the various senior classes to co-operate in arranging for the banquet is: Columbian, E. C. Harter and Miss Elizabeth Ferguson, Medical School—S. V. Mead, R. Bonelaguet, and Samuel Danan, Veterinary College—F. H. Reynolds, F. A. Grenfell, and I. M. Caswell, Engineering School—J. D. McCormick.

On the theory that healthy children should have the fresh air benefits usually reserved for the sickly, a superintendent of Wheatley, of Middletown, Conn., has introduced a modified open window plan throughout his entire school system.

Mrs. William F. Hancock's table at the Martha Jefferson breakfast will be admirably filled. With her will be Mrs.
W. W. Dixon, Mrs. William E. Dittender, Mrs. Clarence O. McKay, Mrs. James H. Morrison, Mrs. Harry D. Denham, Mrs. Gage, Mrs. Frank Little, Mrs. M.
P. Adams, and Mrs. Pentz Wilcox.

Mrs. Henry Cleveland Perkins closed her Washington house yesterday and has gone to Hamilton, Mass., for the season.

Lord Eustace Percy, third secretary of the British Embassy, sailed on the Manretania yesterday for England.

The marriage of Miss Helen Mae Terry, niece of Mr. and Mrs. Frank H. Smith, and Millard Ward Jones, whose engagement was announced several months ago, will take place at 7 o'clock on the evening of Wednesday, June 3. Rev. Dr. W.
R. Wedderburn, rector of the Foundry Methodist Episcopal Church, will officiate and the ceremony will be witnessed by only a small family party. From 8 to 10 o'clock Mr. and Mrs. Jones will hold an informal reception for the friends of the young people, for which no special invitations will be issued.

Mrs. Ira Nelson Morris, of Chicago, who is stopping at the Shoreham, entertained at dinner last night in the room where his guests were the Italian Ambassador, Mrs. Henry Ford, Mrs. John Ford, Mrs. C. C. Walcott and Mrs. I. L.
Hunt.

The annual dinner for the president general N. S. D. A. K., which was held last year at the Country Club, will be given June 10, at 8 o'clock at the Powhatan. Much regret is felt by the chapter, that the several hundred guests who were with them on that delightful occasion last year cannot all be present now, owing to the limited space, as the club cannot be obtained. The national officers, the State officers, and prominent persons from New York and other States will be guests of the chapter. The regents, Mrs. Edward B. Olney, will preside.

All reservations must be secured by June 1, through Mrs. Edward B. Olney, 2117 O street.

Mrs. J. Samuel, accompanied by Miss Florence Sammet and Mr. Harry Sam-met, reached here on Tuesday from Nashville, Tenn., and will be at the Hotel Powhatan until they leave for their home in New York City.

Invitations for the wedding of Miss Elsa Gertrude Bauer and Mr. Carl C.
Muller, which will be held at the Concordia Lutheran Church, evening, June 10, at 8 o'clock at Concordia Lutheran Church.

The Rev. Paul A. Mennel, pastor of the church, will officiate and the bride will be attended by her cousin, Miss Margaret S. Balbach, of Philadelphia, as maid of honor and Miss Louise A. Abbey and Miss Mary E. Sobotta, who occupy the old MacVeagh house of 100 rooms, in that city. They will remain there for
summer place at Dublin, N. H.

THANKS SENATE FOR GIFT.
The House received with applause yesterday a letter from Mrs. John Sharp Williams, wife of the Mississippi Senator, thanking them for the gift of her husband's portrait.

"The best years of my husband's life were spent as a member of your body," stated Mrs. Williams in her letter. "His gift is most gratifying to me and will be one of my chief pleasures."
